NORWALK CITY SCHOOLS
80 EAST MAIN STREET
NORWALK, OHIO

Commencement Time, 1954

To The Seniors:

The appearance of The Signal, chronicle of life at Norwalk High School, marks a high point in your career. You hold in your hands the book you have been writing, in word and deed, for the past several years. We hope you will be pleased with these pages and that you may go from school with determination to add luster to your honors.

We congratulate the student journalists who have spent many hours preparing this illuminating record of school activities. The 1954 Signal is a worthy successor of a long and distinguished list of annuals.

It is possible that you may feel some regret with the realization that your high school days are at an end. It is certain that our faculty members and students will miss you when another year comes to N. H. S. Be assured of our abiding interest in your activities and, further, remember always that what you do with your future will reflect the training you have received within these halls.

And now you take with you our best wishes as you continue to write the pages of your book of life. May you enjoy good health, success and happiness—always!

Hail and Farewell!

Sincerely yours,
J. H. McBride

And All Around the School...

WE loudly applauded Jeff Dieterich when he won first place in the Voice of Democracy contest...and were grateful to projector-operators Phil May, Stanley Chapin, and Harry Griffin.

We were surprised when Dom Caprara and Jim Spalsbury became part-time librarians...and were pleased with George Diehl, Mary Shutts, Fred Sheppard, and Russell Fisher, who were winners in the magazine salesmanship contest.

Miss Mossman's Latin class still struggled with "do, dare, dedi, datus," as it has over many years...but Joel Samaha could not express the joy of all concerned when model Jim Luxon gave us a glimpse of the new band uniforms for which we had waited so long!

Senior Officers

"HE that will conquer must fight" has been the motto of the senior class, although officially it was not selected until a few weeks before graduation. The choice was a wise one, however, because the various members of the class have fought for, and won, the many important positions in music, drama, sports, and scholarship which they held. They have proved themselves capable and promise to make a success of their lives in the future.

Junior Officers

PROBABLY most memorable events which the juniors will cherish at the end of this year will be the junior-senior prom and the two junior-senior plays--both of which were new in their experiences. But while the many sports activities were a continuation from past years, as upperclassmen they met their new responsibilities and made admirable showings for themselves. Likewise, they assumed greater leadership in all school functions and organizations.

MEMBERS of the sophomore class have found a place for themselves among the upperclassmen by entering into more and more of the school's activities. As such, they have participated actively in the sports program, musical organizations, and various clubs. They have been considered a valuable asset throughout the year, and may be counted upon for an increasingly successful record in the future.

HAVING become full-fledged members of the high school during this year, the freshmen have taken on full responsibility for the many crowded minutes that go to make up the school year. Although they faced a new routine in a different building, they soon caught the swing of things and assumed their rightful places. They have participated in and supported honorably the wide range of the activities program of the high school.

Seventh Grade Officers

SEVENTH-graders who entered the Cole building last fall for the first time found a new adventure waiting for them. The class is made up of sixth-grade graduates from Pleasant, Benedict, League, and Cole schools. Changing classes, remembering teachers names, and learning locker combinations were challenging experiences for them. But by the end of the year they had become active members of Norwalk High School, with the initial step towards graduation behind them.

THE highest honor that can be bestowed on a high school student is membership in the National Honor Society. National Honor Society members are chosen from juniors and seniors only, and are elected by a vote of the faculty members on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service to the school. Only five percent of the junior class and fifteen percent of the senior class members may be elected. Ruth Bell serves as club sponsor.

We excelled in Service and Scholarship.

MEMBERS of the Student Council are elected by the student body, each class electing its own representatives. The Student Council is composed of three seniors, three juniors, two sophomores, two freshmen, one seventh and one eighth grader. It selects the lyceum programs for the school assemblies, has charge of the election of the football queen, and supports the Junior Red Cross drive and other similar projects. Mr. Abel meets with the Council as its advisor.

We became interested in teaching.

THE C.C. Patterson chapter of the Future Teachers of America, though relatively newly organized, is constantly gaining importance in the club programs. Any student who desired to become a teacher may join the club and thereby receive valuable information concerning the teaching profession. Occasionally members of the club are asked to substitute for a teacher in the school system, and thus actual experience in teaching is gained.

This year's members included Donna Allen, Elizabeth Baker, Joanne Bishop, Jeanne Chapin, Connie Decker, Leah Elmer, Rosemary Heyl, Gretchen Hill, Judy Kledis, Martha Klieger, Janice McCrillis, Carolyn Shutts, Pat Souslin, and Dot Toole.

Sponsors were Dorothy Allen, Joyce Badger, Lucille Carr, Richard Vogt, and Jeanette Woodworth.

We learned of brotherhood.

THE Hi-Y, which is sponsored by the Young Men's Christian Association, is an organization that extends throughout the United States. Its purpose is "to create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character."

The club is dedicated to service. Each year the members provide transportation to the polls for voters. They sponsor the annual Thanksgiving service for the school and similar assemblies. Clean-up programs and planting trees are also a part of their activities. They make contributions to such worthwhile causes as the World Fellowship programs.

To finance this program, the Hi-Y this year sold plastic book covers, refreshments at the basketball and football games, and washed cars.

Membership included Alan Angell, Ronnie Baker, Gene Ballard, William Cash, Stanley Chapin, Jim Chapman, Jeff Dieterich, Erle Ellis, Russell Fisher, Dick Heaston, David Hinckley, Jim Johnson, Keith Kelley, Jerry Lawrence, Phil May, Richard Meyers, Kenneth Miller, Bob Mitchell, Bruce Moore, David Munson, Joe Murray, Charles Naley, Jim Nease.

We sought a Christian life.

THE Y-Teens is a Christian organization, sponsored by the Young Women's Christian Association, designed to create a better spiritual life among its members. Any girl who joins the club is automatically given membership in the national YWCA.

The Y-Teens participates in many activities throughout the school year, the most outstanding of which is the Easter service presented for the student body.

The main social event in the Y-Teens' year is the annual dinner-dance arranged by the club. On this occasion the girls invite their dates to dinner and a dance which follows.

Naomi Wiebe is the faculty advisor for the organization.

Members of the Y-Teens this year were Betty Baker, Carol Bishman, Joanne Bishop, Jackie Burns, Jeanne Chapin, Elizabeth Cissne, Janice Condon, Martha Cordes, Pat Cross, Ann Crossen, Molly Crossen, Virginia Dann, Connie Decker, Barbara Diringer, Marilyn Earl, Ruth Earl, Leah Elmer, Kathy Finch, Shirley Fletcher, Elissa Gilhousen, Betty Hainline, Jackie Helsel, Sandy Hendrickson, Donna Higgins, Nancy Hixon, Judy Hutchins, Carol Hutchinson, Nancy Hutchison, Vivian Kearney, Martha Klieger, Pat Maring, Martha McDonald, Pam Metzger, Joyce Meyer, Monnie Miller, Jane Moore, Barbara Morehouse, Martha Motsch, Joanne Nardecchia, Marlene Nickoli, Nancy Rice, Mary Ann Scheid, Alice Shantz, Janice Shaw, Carol Shelley, Connie Shepler, Carolyn Shutts, Roberta Sim, Deanna Smolinski, Beverly Stanton, Barbara Strecker, Carole Taylor, Mary Timman, Sandra Tinker, Dot Toole, Penny Tossell, Carrol Touby, Sondra Tutchings, Shirley White.

We looked forward to becoming homemakers.

Secretary Marjorie Gfell, president Carrol Touby and vice-president Marguerite Nease plan future meetings.

THE Truckerettes club consists entirely of girls interested in home economics and is open to all high school girls. Projects, problems, and activities in the field of home economics are discussed and shared at the bi-weekly meetings.

Among their projects for this year were the adoption of a needy family at Christmas time and the production of a style show. Members of the organization are also called upon to serve the various school banquets which are held throughout the year.

Faculty advisor for the group is Nancy Carrick.

Those enrolled in the club this year were Charlotte Allen, Elizabeth Baker, Carol Bishman, Pat Boles, Lynette Chaffee, Janice Condon, Carol Downing, Shirley Fletcher, Irene Gaag, Margie Gfell, Sonya Gregory, Ruth Hackett, Betty Hainline, Carol Hamisfar, Esther Katonak, Georgian Katonak, Katherine Katonak, Faye Lorcher, Hazel Mac Donald, Shirley Manns, Joyce Meyer, Marilyn Miller, Marguerite Nease, Marlene Nickoli, Alice Ortman, Jeanne Peckham, Darlene Perkins, Darlene Pressley, Vonnie Reed, Betty Resor, Carol Rogers, Pat Schacheter, Mary Ann Scheid, Barbara Schlegelmilch, Roberta Sim, Elaine Sinclair, Helen Sitterly, Ruth Sitterly, Yvonne Skinner, Imogene Smith, Dot Toole, Carrol Touby, Eleanor Twitchell, Irma Witter, Doris Worcester.

We learned how to win and lose.

THE Girls' Athletic Association is an organization for girls who are especially interested in an active sports program. Besides a heavy intramural calendar, this group this year sponsored the athletic banquet and planned the football homecoming ceremonies. Their special event of the year, however, is the all-star basketball game featuring two teams designated as Ohio State and Michigan.

Awards in the association are given on the basis of points earned while participating in intramurals and club activities in general. This year's advisor was Louise LePontois.

Members were Joanne Bishop, Shirley Boepple, Elizabeth Cissne, Joyce Comer, Pat Cross, Ann Crossen, Connie Cunningham, Marilyn Earl, Leah Elmer, Shirley Fletcher, Margie Gfell, Sandy Hendrickson, Mary Jo Hepp, Rosemary Heyl, Fay Lorcher, Sandra May, Martha McDonald, Marilyn Miller, Susan Meyer, Barbara Morehouse, Joanne Nardecchia, Marlene Nickoli, Betty Reddick, Janice Shaw, Beverly Stanton, Carole Taylor, Dot Toole, Carrol Touby, Beverly Wahl, Shirley Wahl.

We publish a newspaper.

STUDENTS at Norwalk High School eagerly look forward to those Fridays when the school newspaper is distributed. The Signal, which attempts to give complete coverage of all school activities, is produced by the Journalism class.

Besides the regular publication of the newspaper, the staff is also busy most of the year taking pictures, checking organizations, writing copy, and making the many decisions--which all add up in time to another year's annual.

The staff is composed only of juniors and seniors. Kendall Falke is the faculty advisor.

THE purchase and presentation of new band uniforms to Norwalk High's Marching and Symphonic Bands, which have been under the direction of R.P. Laycock for the past twenty-nine years, was the highlight of the year. These new band uniforms replaced those used for the past fifteen years. The 105 members of the Marching Band are called upon to perform at the football games, parades, and other civic occasions. The Symphonic Band members play for the Sunday concert series, the radio broadcasts, and the local music festival. The biggest event of the year for the two bands is the band festival, held this year at Galion, in which they perform with three other bands from schools in the Northern Ohio League.

We have an outstanding orchestra.

NORWALK High's seventy-five piece orchestra is one of which everyone can be proud. It has been an active school organization since its formation nineteen years ago and has been acclaimed by many as "one of the best in northern Ohio."

During the year the orchestra made public appearances for the junior-senior plays, the local Sunday concerts, the annual Christmas program for the high school, an exchange concert with Willard High School, the local school music festival, and the Northern Ohio League Orchestra Festival which was held at Norwalk this year.

THE pep band is a welcomed feature of all home basketball games. Its lively music always adds extra fervor to an exciting game and helps to make the minutes between quarters pass faster. This band's repertoire falls on the popular side with current songs, familiar marches, and old favorites always on hand.

The German band's function is more limited since it appears only before the student body, but no pep assembly would ever be complete without it.

We enjoyed singing . . .

THE choruses this year increased in numbers with the addition of more people who have discovered the joy of singing. Besides the many fine performances for special holiday assemblies, the chorus has appeared on the Sunday afternoon concerts and on the weekly radio broadcasts.

A new male quartette with Gene Ballard, Jerry Lawrence, Keith Kelley, and Jeff Dieterich participating was well received on the various occasions when it performed.

Vocal music is under the direction of Henry Gladigan.

EACH year the junior and senior classes combine their efforts to put on two major dramatic presentations for the school. To open their season this fall the comedy "Mother Is a Freshman" was chosen.

This year, with the retirement of Madge Mossman from the directorial chair after many years of successful service, productions were under the direction of Don Harness.

How We Play--

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Erle Ellis, Pat Cross, Gretchen Hill, Sandra Hendrickson.

With our cheerleaders,
we have the fight!

NEEDLESS to say the cheerleaders are probably the team's most ardent supporters. They are always on hand at the games giving forth with cheers which they hope will, in some way, help the team to win. Many fans agree that this year's varsity four are the best in the league as compared to the seven other league schools.

EIGHTH GRADE CHEERLEADERS: Mary Shutts, Kay Kugel, Katy Lederer, Joan Wells.

We put up a rough battle in football.

THIS year the team did not enjoy one of its better seasons as it finished with a 3-5-1 record.

Led by co-captains Jim Spettle and Bob Wilkinson, the Truckers, who were underdogs in most of their contests, held their opponents to comparatively low scores.

Highlights of the season were the 35-0 win over Crestline and the Shelby game in which the Whippets were held scoreless for three quarters.

NHS was honored this year by having five players given all-league recognition. Second team placements were Bob Wilkinson and Jim Luxon. Jim Spettle, Dave Hunter, and Dean Colvin received honorable mention.

Even though the record book showed more losses than wins, all the players deserve credit for staying in there fighting even when it seemed hopeless.

Managers Dominic Caprara, Grant Walls, Jr., statistician Bob Wilkinson, scorer James Ellertson, coach Grant Walls.

THE Truckers ended the 1954 basketball season with a 6-12 record.

In the Galion game Jim Spettle scored 37 points, breaking the school scoring record. Jim also walked off with league scoring honors as he had a 34 point average per game.

With many sophomore and junior boys breaking into the lineup, Norwalk will undoubtedly enjoy a better season next year.

Our reserves gained valuable experience.

ALTHOUGH the jay vees won only two of eighteen games it is acknowledged that the experience gained will not only help those who remain with the jay vees another season, but also who fill places vacated by graduating varsity men. All the Trucker juniors have taken defeat in their stride and are looking forward to avenging the losses they suffered.

Track found more

THE 1954 track season found an enthusiastic group participating. Since Norwalk did not have a baseball team this year, more boys took the opportunity to perfect their individual skills in the variety of activities offered in track. Outstanding members of the team included Adelman and Luxon in shot put and discus; Burr in hurdles and pole vault; Berner, Chapin, Luxon, Miller, Spettle, Ward and J. Zureich on the cinders. The team is coached by Don Buckeye and Al Flint.

This years' cindermen were Thomas Adleman, Ronald Baker, Gene Ballard, Donald Bear, Bertram Berner, Edwin Burr, Stanley Chapin, Allen Condon, John Francisco, Richard Heaston, James Johnson, James Luxon, Kenneth Miller, Robert Mitchell, David Munson, Joe Murray,

Tennis and golf concluded the sports season.

TENNIS players and golfers spent an enjoyable season, as they attempted to set new records for themselves and turn in a successful year for the school. Racquet-men Alan Angell and Bob Wilkinson returned to the courts, ably assisted by first-year men Bill Cash, Mike Cronk, and Jim Rogers. The golf greens saw renewed activity from veteran players Dave Hunter, Ronnie Keysor, Jim Rolsten, and Larry Ware. Allen Buch and Grant Walls, Jr., joined the group this year. Harry Shadle coached the tennis team; Grant Walls, golf.

Mihali Studio Chosen For Senior Pictures

Mihali Studio of Photography was chosen for the third consecutive year as the photographer to take senior class pictures. Student vote gave Mihali a slight margin over Heiser.

Mr. H. B. Heiser and Mr. John Mihali during a recent class meeting spoke briefly concerning photography and distributed pamphlets pertaining to the price range for ordering.

[illegible] Named For Basketball Season

Four new reserve cheerleaders, chosen from twenty-five contestants last Tuesday, are Molly Cromen and Deanna Smolinski, sophomores, and Joanne Earl and Jackie Belzel, freshmen. Mrs. Carrick, Miss Monaman, Miss LeFevbvre, Mr. Seibel and Mr. Harmon elected them.

Deanna and Molly were both members of last year's reserve cheerleaders, while Jackie and Joanne are a new addition.

The seventh grade class met last Thursday to choose the following cheerleaders: From the total of eighteen tryouts, Clarann Finch, Judy Carpenter, Lawana Swarts and Bonita Grincol were the lucky winners.

FTA Members Halloween Party

Black cats and big orange pumpkins decorated the multi-purpose room of League Street School when the FTA Club had their Halloween party October 28.

Prizes for costumes were to Patricia Scudin as best disguised; Janice McCulla, as most original and Joanne Bishop as funniest.

The evening was spent playing games and dancing. Refreshments of donuts and cider were served.

PHOTO EXHIBIT

A selection of winners of the National High School Photographic Contest will be shown during the week of November 16 to 20 in the library.
